

Changing States of Water in the Environment

Discussion Questions:

1) What natural processes occur in the environment to enable water to change states?

condensation

precipitation

evaporation

