

Classifying Adjectives

Classifying adjectives are adjectives used to classify a noun as certain type.

Classifying adjectives place people and things into classes or groups. They are non-gradable.

We're going to fill a wooden box.

It was a military vehicle.

He plays a musical instrument.

She walked through the olive trees.

Word Wall: Classifying Adjectives

Western

Eastern

annual

French

Chinese

Australian

English

Aboriginal

plastic

metal

cloth

nylon paper political scientific

European

wooden

American

brick digital

Use some classifying adjectives in a sentence.

We could see the _____ flag.

Antarctica is located in the _____ Hemisphere.

Tim bought a _____ watch.

