

Exclamation mark

An exclamation mark (!) is used at the end of a sentence to show a strong feeling such as surprise, anger or excitement.

Ouch! Something stung me!

Wow! What a great shot!

"Stop pulling my hair!" Sue screamed.

Exclamation mark

An exclamation mark can also show that someone is shouting.

Steven! Watch out!
There's a snake in that tree!

Can you think of other examples where you would use an exclamation mark?
