

Sorting

Aim:

To sort 20 items based on a classification that you have chosen.

With a partner write a list of 20 classroom items.

Sort the items into three groups. Together you must both decide on the basis for the classification.

Now sort the items based on the classification that you have chosen.

Can you think of any other ways of classifying the same items?