

Stormy Weather

Study*ladder*

A storm front developing over the sea as it approaches the land.

Thunder, lightning and heavy rain are features of stormy weather.

Torrential rain can cause flash flooding, damaging homes and businesses. Studyladder

Strong winds, associated with many storms, can cause damage to property. Studyladder

Research Task:

THUNDERSTORMS

Questions:

- 1) How do storm clouds develop?
- 2) What causes lightning?
- 3) What causes thunder?
- 4) Why do we see lightning before we hear thunder?

Include appropriate headings, diagrams, and pictures. Include a bibliography to acknowledge your sources of information.

