

Photographing Shadows

Points to consider:

- Where are you likely to see a shadow?
- What objects effectively block light?
- How does the time of day affect the size and shape of shadows?

Task:

- Find places to photograph reflective surfaces. Take at least three photographs at each place.
or
- Experiment with photographing shiny objects. Take at least three photographs of each object.
- Select your three best photographs to display in class.