

Factual and Opinion Adjectives

Name: _____

A fact is information that cannot be argued with.

Factual adjectives may describe features such as colour, size, shape, material, age, number.

Opinion adjectives express personal thoughts and feelings. They are not facts — they are opinions.

Sort the Adjectives:

FACTUAL ADJECTIVES	OPINION ADJECTIVES

Circle the adjective and state whether it reflects fact or opinion.

A steep staircase led to the attic. _____

There is a round mirror hanging above the fireplace. _____

His rude comment upset the entire group. _____

The elegant swan glided across the lake. _____

My adorable puppy likes chasing its tail. _____

The thrilling novel kept me awake all night. _____

The muddy football field made running difficult. _____

The cotton towel dried quickly in the sun. _____

A narrow bridge crossed the deep canyon. _____

The magnificent castle stood on the hill. _____

Describe some features of the following items using FACTUAL adjectives.

	