Sandwiches

Name:

Sandwiches

The word 'sandwich' is thought to be named after John Montagu (1718-1792), the Fourth Earl of Sandwich. One day he was too busy to have a formal meal, so he instructed his cook to pack his meat inside the bread to save him time, and the sandwich was invented.

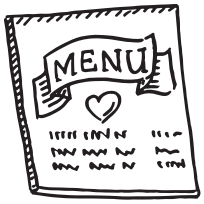
Ask all your friends and family what is their favourite sandwich.

Which sandwich was most popular?

Poster Design

Imagine you have just opened your own sandwich shop.

Think of a name for the shop and what special types of sandwiches you will sell.



Create a poster to advertise your shop and your 'special' sandwiches.

Writing a Procedure

On a separate page, write a procedure for making your favourite sandwich.

Use the following headings.

Requirements

- ingredients
- utensils
- materials

Instructions

Show step by step in what order things need to be done. Remember to number each step.

Use diagrams or pictures if necessary.

Words in a Word

How many words can you make using the letters in the word 'sandwich'?

said _____ _____

_____ _____

_____ _____

_____ _____

_____ _____

Number Crunchers

These are the prices of some sandwiches.

cheese: £2.00
ham: £2.50
chicken: £3.00
tuna: £1.50

Extras
salad: £1.00
tomato: £0.50
lettuce: £0.50

How much will it cost for:

Two cheese sandwiches?

One ham and two chicken sandwiches?

One tuna and salad sandwich?

One chicken sandwich with lettuce and tomato?

Two cheese sandwiches, two chicken sandwiches and one tuna sandwich?

© Studyladder